

Tour Porto

Porto - This is the city that gave its name to Portugal - very early (ca. 200 a.C.), when it was called Portus Cale, later becoming the capital of the Portucalense County, from where Portugal was formed. It is also a city known worldwide for its wine, its bridges and contemporary and ancient architecture, its historic center, classified as World Heritage by UNESCO, the quality of its restaurants and its gastronomy, its main football team, Football Clube do Porto, for its main public university: the University of Porto.
